TAKE 190 WEST ART FESTIVAL SATURDAY

(KILLEEN, TEXAS): The 8th annual Take 190 West Festival will celebrate the arts Saturday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Killeen Civic & Conference Center, 3601 S. W.S. Young Drive. Admission is free.

The festival highlights a variety of mediums and techniques featuring artists and writers from across the country. Artists will showcase their talents on canvas and beyond, and authors will offer their works on paper with readings and signings.

Highlights of this year's festival:

- Fifteen talented sculptors will compete in a live two-day limestone carving competition beginning Friday.
- Author Arlene Gale will offer free writing workshops in journaling at 11 a.m. and technical writing at 1 p.m. in the Special Events Room.
- Debra Winegarten, author of "Oveta Culp Hobby: Colonel, Cabinet Member, Philanthropist" will speak about the Killeen native's impact on history at 2 p.m.

For more information about the event, call the Civic & Conference Center at 501-3888 or visit www.take190west.com.
